

Figure 6.7: Coupled spring mass system. Each mass is connected to two springs with stiffness k and a viscous damper with damping coefficient c . The mass on the right is driven through a spring connected to a sinusoidally varying attachment.