

Figure 4.6: Block diagram of a bicycle with a front fork. The steering torque applied to the handlebars is  $T$ , the roll angle is  $\varphi$ , and the steering angle is  $\delta$ . Notice that the front fork creates a feedback from the roll angle  $\varphi$  to the steering angle  $\delta$  that under certain conditions can stabilize the system.